TWO STEPS FROM HELL LIVE

The masters of epic music on tour for the first time with orchestra and choir

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the Two Steps From Hell – Live European tour was postponed into summer 2022.

Whenever huge emotions, tense anticipation and breathtaking intensity are in the air, the sound of Two Steps From Hell isn't far away.

The world's number one epic music producers and composers, namely Thomas Bergersen and Nick Phoenix, are breaking every streaming and follower record with their California-based production company Two Steps From Hell. With over four billion views on YouTube, one billion plays on other streaming platforms and four platinum albums, Two Steps From Hell are already one of the most successful music entities ever.

With their bombastic sound characterised by ancient chants, titles such as "Protectors of the Earth," "Heart of Courage," "Victory" and "Archangel" set the heartbeats of millions of fans racing and perfectly complement the (film) images they accompany. Movie trailers for blockbusters such as "Avengers: Endgame," "Aquaman" or "Jurassic World," the opening ceremonies of the Olympic Games and advertisements for many large companies all rely on Two Steps From Hell to guarantee their success.

Now, for the first time, Two Steps From Hell are going on a live concert tour across Europe accompanied by "The Bolshoi Orchestra and Choir". Behind this name is none other than the fabulous orchestra of the Bolshoi Opera Belarus and the Belarus Radio and Television choir. These musicians are musical all-rounders. Bolshoi means nothing less than "excellent". The musicians inspire the audience all over the world with exuberant enthusiasm and high technical ability. Under the direction of Petr Pololáník, who conducted most of the trailer and album recordings of Two Steps From Hell, the orchestra delivers an intense and unforgettable concert experience.

Next to "The Bolshoi Orchestra and Choir" the fantastic "Two Steps From Hell" band will join the European live tour. To name the band members is a real pleasure, because all of them are international stars in the huge music universe.
